S.B. Civil Writ Petition No.821/1999
Gopal Prakash & Anr. Vs. State of Raj. & Ors.

22.02.2007

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mohammad Rafiq

None present for petitioners.
Shri B.S. Chhaba, Dy. GA.

This matter was listed on 18.8.2005 but no one was present for the petitioners. When the matter was again listed on 20.2.2007 again no one was present and the matter has been deferred for 21.2.2007. On 21.2.2007 still no one was present and the matter was deferred for today. Today also no one is present for the petitioners in spite of names of the learned counsel for the petitioners being shown in the cause list.

I with the help of Shri B.S.

Chhaba, learned Dy. Government Advocate examined the impugned order. The petitioners have challenged the order passed by the Collector (Stamps), Ajmer whereby the sale deed present by him for registration before Sub-Registrar, Ajmer under the provisions of Rajasthan Stamp Act has been held to be undervalued and therefore it is being required to make the payment of the differential amount of the stamp duty.

Having perused the order passed by the learned Collector (Stamps), I find that there is no reason why this Court make any interference in this case particularly when the remedy of revision petition is available to the petitioners before the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority (Revenue Board), Ajmer under Section 65 of the Rajasthan Stamp Act, 1998.

The writ petition is therefore dismissed with liberty to the petitioners to file revision petition before the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority (Revenue Board Ajmer) and if the petitioners file the revision petition within three months from today, it is directed that the revision petition shall be considered and decided on merits in accordance with law.

Registry is directed to forward a copy of this order to each of the petitioners.
